

Statement of Fees

Material costs must be paid prior to commencing studies and/or practical training. If eligible for a government funded position under 'Skills First', the Victorian government may contribute a dollar amount per nominal hour of your course. This amount is paid directly to Serve It Up (SIU) on to cover a portion of costs associated with training. Nationally Recognised training is GST free. Participation is required for all courses. Training is conducted at U39, 617-643 Spencer Street, West Melbourne (our head office), 62-64 Little La Trobe Street, Melbourne or at your employer's venue. The student tuition fees as published are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment and details of any other fees including but not limited to student services, amenities, goods, or materials. If a government funded student is completing a funded dual qualification the enrolment tuition fees and material fees may not be charged. At the CEO's discretion, fees can be waived for any student prior to, during, or post training and assessment. *Prices may differ for workplace-based training, traineeships and employees/employers.

Statement of Fees

Fees in Advance

Serve It Up does not accept payment of more than $1000 from each individual student prior to the commencement of the course. Following course commencement, students can be provided with payment plans, which distribute fees over the period of their enrolment. Following course commencement, Serve It Up may require payment of additional fees in advance from the student but only such that at any given time, the total amount required to be paid which is attributable to tuition or other services yet to be delivered to the student does not exceed $1,500.

Refund/withdrawal from course

Serve It Up can guarantee that we will endeavour to complete the training and/or assessment once the student has commenced study in their chosen qualification or course to the best of our ability. No refunds are generally provided for training that has already been delivered. If Serve It Up cancels a course, a refund of all fees is paid to the student or client, unless satisfactory alternative arrangements can be made. 'Applications to withdraw from studies' requests received up to 10 working days prior to commencement of a course will be approved and a full refund, minus $50 to cover administration costs, will be paid. Cancellation/withdrawal requests received less than 10 working days prior to the commencement of, or after the commencement of, a course will not be accepted, and no refund will be paid. Cancellations/withdrawal will only be accepted if they are received in writing via email, fax, and post or by hand delivery. If a refund is approved because a class was badly conducted or a trainer has not met expectations, and the student has attended at least two (2) classes, a full refund will be made. If a student attends at least 1 class and then requests a refund on grounds other than class conduct, no refund will be made. At the discretion of the CEO, additional refunds requests can be processed.

Service Guarantee

SIU will fully complete the training and assessment for any student once they commenced, as long as the student has paid all required fees, the student has followed SIU policies and procedures, the students has attended required classes and is within qualification duration timeframes.

Payment Plans

Payment Plans are available for course fees over $150. A set payment schedule is required for Hospitality and Management courses. Payment Plans must be completed prior to course commencement. The first payment will be deducted on the Thursday after your first day of training. The Payment Plan cannot extend past your expected course end date. If a scheduled payment bounces you must arrange to complete the payment within 7 days. You cannot commence training unless you have paid your course fees or completed and lodged a payment plan.

Workplace based training and traineeships

Due to the increased cost of delivering training in the workplace SIU will charge the employer a set amount dependent on the specific workplace needs and number of employees to be trained. This cost will be provided to the employer in their contract and pre-training review prior to commencing any workplace-based training and traineeships.
