Government Funded Courses:

Skills First Government Funding

You may be eligible for a government-subsidised place through the Skills First Funding Program. If you are eligible, the government will contribute to the cost of your training. To check your individual eligibility or if you want further course information call/email the office. There are limitations to using Victorian government funding, you need to make sure you are using your funding for the right course, as it may affect your access to future government funding.

Basic Funding Info

- You must be an Australian, a New Zealand Citizen or a Permanent Resident
- You must be up-skilling to a higher qualification than you already hold (unless under 20 at the 1st of January this year)
- You can enrol in a maximum of two government-subsidised courses in one year
- You can undertake up to two government-subsidised courses at one time
- You can only ever begin a maximum of two government-subsidised courses at the same qualification level.

*Funding rules may differ slightly for courses on the foundations skills list and apprenticeships.

JobTrainer

SIU currently has access to limited Job Trainer places for the following qualifications:

- SIT30616 Certificate III Hospitality

If you were not eligible for Skills First funding because you did NOT meet the “upskilling” requirement or “two at a level in a life time” you could get an exemption under the Job Trainer fund if you are:

17-24 or

A job seeker of any age (evidence required such as concession card or separation certificate)

Other eligibility criteria and/or exemptions may apply. Student can only access the JobTrainer initiative once. Different criteria applies if you are recommencing a previous JobTrainer enrolment. Contact our office for further information.

Payment Options

We only accept online payments.

Short courses and material fees are paid online after completing enrolment via Stripe our online payment system.

Full- Qualifications are via direct debit payment plan, with fortnightly debits over the duration of your course. You will be sent an invoice and email with a “gocardless” link to a payment plan mandate that will require you to enter your name, email and bank details. If you would like to pay in one payment via credit card, request a credit card link from finance@serveitup.com.au. Payment plans cannot be attached to a credit card.

We do not accept more than $1000 prior to commencing your course, or once commenced no more than $1500 in advance of services delivered.

Statement of Fees

Reassessment Fees

We cannot guarantee that you will successfully complete your training course. Successful completion is dependent on your skills and knowledge. You may receive a Not Yet Competent (NYC) mark and need to undergo reassessment. A student will not be charged a reassessment Fee if they are assessed as NYC during the in-class reassessment process and can complete reassessment in the scheduled catch up classes. If a student is required to book in a reassessment to be conducted outside of class time, a reassessment Fee may apply.

- Hourly reassessment fee for oral questioning may be charged at $60 per hour required
- Reassessment for Theory Assessments may be charged at $100 per assessment.
- Reassessment for Practical Assessment may be charged at $200 per assessment.
- Reassessment for a Practical Placement Visits may be charged at $200 per visit required to the workplace
- If a student books a reassessment session outside of their regular class time and they fail to attend without good reason, such as a medical condition supported with documentary evidence, the student may be charged a $50 administration Fee for rebooking the session.
- Students that have missed more than 20% classes, without a valid and approved reason and require catch up sessions with the trainer and assessor may be charged a reassessment/training fee of $60 per hour.
- Reassessment fees are GST Free

Other Fees and Charges:

- Postage of books after purchase, if not picking up from the head office book shop $12 within Victoria.
- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) - $250 application and assessment fee. Each additional hour of assessment $60
- Replacement certification fee: $20
- Concession fee /discount is 20% of the standard tuition fee for a government subsidised student enrolled in an eligible qualification.
- External Appeals – see student handbook

Fees are subject to change based on market conditions, individual student circumstances and changes to Government Funding. Serve It Up may charge for additional services for an individual student or group. If these are to be charged they will be provided to the student, or person/business covering the cost of the individuals/groups training (etc) prior to enrolment. Such charges could include, but are not limited to: room hire fees, interpreters, travel and accommodation charges, increased rates – should groups decrease in size, one-one tutoring services, other educational support services.

Group Bookings for short courses ($300 deposit)

Please book with Head Office prior to it commencing. Minimum numbers of 10 (if students drop out will still be charged for 10 minimum). Funds can be refunded if cancellation is more than 48 hours' notice in advance. If you need to reschedule the training date, with less than 48 hours' notice this may incur a $300 charge – to cover trainer costs. Certificates will not be released until all payments are made.

Workplace based training and traineeships

Due to the increased cost of delivering training in the workplace SIU will charge the employer a set amount dependent on the specific workplace needs and number of employees to be trained. This cost will be provided to the employer in their contract and pre-training review prior to commencing any workplace-based training and traineeships.

Service Guarantee

SIU will fully complete the training and assessment for any student once they commenced, as long as the student has paid all required fees, the student has followed SIU policies and procedures, the students has attended required classes and is within qualification duration timeframes.

Further Conditions

Material costs must be paid prior to commencing studies and/or practical training. If eligible for a government funded position under 'Skills First', the Victorian government may contribute a dollar amount per nominal hour of your course. This amount is paid directly to Serve It Up (SIU) on to cover a portion of costs associated with training. Nationally Recognised training is GST free.

Participation is required for all courses, we cannot guarantee employment or completion. Training is conducted at U39, 617-643 Spencer Street, West Melbourne (our head office), 62-64 Little La Trobe Street, Melbourne or at your employer's venue.

The student tuition fees as published are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment and details of any other fees including but not limited to student services, amenities, goods, or materials. If a government funded student is completing a funded dual qualification the enrolment tuition fees and material fees may not be charged. At the CEO's discretion, fees can be waived for any student prior to, during, or post training and assessment. *Prices may differ for workplace-based training, traineeships and employees/employers.

The refund policy and procedure is listed in the student handbook on our website.

Please refer to the specific course brochure which provides detailed course information including: estimated course duration, expected locations for delivery, expected modes of delivery, name and contact details of any third party that may provide training and assessments, and related educational support services and any work placement arrangements
